

Session 1: September 28, 2026 | 8–12 PM | MET LC 141

Session 2: November 30, 2026 | 8–12 PM | MET LC 145

Session 3: February 1, 2027 | 8–12 PM | MET LC 145

Session 4: April 5, 2027 | 8–12 PM | MET LC 145

UC San Diego Office of Faculty Development is pleased to announce the next Faculty Teaching and Learning Academy (FT&LA). This series of educational events are designed to further develop junior faculty who are interested in becoming core teachers and leaders within UC San Diego's UME, GME and CPD environments. It's also designed to create a community of practice amongst our clinician educators.

Location: T. Denny Sanford Medical Education and Telemedicine (MET) building, Learning Center room, UC San Diego School of Medicine campus

Time: 8am – 12pm PT

Key features include:

- The FT&LA will occur on 4 half-days over the course of the next academic year (AY 2026-27). Attendance at a minimum of 3 sessions is required.
- Each session will focus on different core areas important for becoming leaders in medical education.
- As an in-person event, the half day sessions will prioritize active learning and participant engagement.
- Mentorship from the UC San Diego's Med-Ed community will be offered.
- The teaching faculty are experts, selected from UC San Diego's Community of Educators
- In recognition of participation, faculty will receive a certificate of completion. CME will also be offered.
- Using the knowledge and skills that they acquire, participants will be expected to deliver a Faculty Development activity of their choosing to their home department or division the following academic year.

Session 1: Core Teaching Skills

Monday, September 28, 2026

- Welcome and Overview
- Teaching on the Fly in Clinic
- Assessing Learners
- Creating & Delivering Effective Lectures
- Teaching on the Fly in the Hospital

Session 2: Teaching 2.0 – Course Leadership and Management Skills
Monday, November 30, 2026

- Curriculum Design & Development
- Leading Without Authority
- Working with the Underperforming Learner
- Teaching: Approaches that work

Session 3: Personal Growth and Advancement
Monday, February 1, 2027

- Leveraging Social Media
- Communicating with Compassion: Engaging with Differences
- Scholarship in Medical Education
- Coaching Today's Learners

Session 4: Technology, Media and Career Success
Monday, April 5, 2027

- Success as a Clinician Educator
- AI and Medical Education
- Media Training (2 hours)

Note: Final program is subject to change.*

Coffee and light breakfast will be provided.

How to Apply

Those interested in participating should discuss with their Division Chiefs or Department Chairs. Space is limited.

Please RSVP via this link by August 1:

https://ucsd.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_8hVQDmg9wDmxnKK

Questions? Please contact: cggoldberg@health.ucsd.edu

Thank you!

Charlie Goldberg, MD

Executive Director Faculty Development UC San Diego School of Medicine

*Sponsored by the UC San Diego School of Medicine Office of Faculty Development.