

Resources and Pilot Grants to Support PBR

Paul J. Mills, PhD
Professor, Family Medicine and Public Health

Resources at UC San Diego

Clinical and Translational Research Institute (CTRI)

- Advances scientific discovery to improve health, bringing discoveries from the lab to the bedside
 - Study Design & Biostatistics
 - Biomarker Laboratory
 - Education & Training
 - Community Engagement

Office of Research Affairs

- Provides services for clinicians and scientists to obtain grants; oversees research collaborations; builds partnerships with industry and other institutions

Pilot Funding at UC San Diego I

Stein Center for Healthy Aging

- Grants between $10k - $20k for projects related to successful aging, including imaging, genetics, neurocognition, and genomics

Clinical and Translational Research Institute (CTRI)

Grants between $30k - $50k for projects related to clinical and translational research, innovative technologies and community partnerships

Family Medicine and Public Health

- Grants up to $25k for FMPH faculty for a broad range of research topics

Academic Senate

- Grants up to $10k to support a wide range of faculty research projects

Pilot Funding at UC San Diego II

Krupp Endowed Fund For Integrative Medicine Research

- Grants from $50k to $450k for projects on integrative medicine, with a particular focus on diet, medicinal food and herbs, and healthy lifestyle

Center for AIDS Research

- Grants up to $50k for HIV-associated malignancy research

Moore's Cancer Center

- Three different grant programs, awards from $30k to $75k, collaborates with the American Cancer Society, funds collaborative translational research

Clinical Observership and Research Education Program

- Grants up to $12k for faculty to support international medical graduates, an opportunity to enhance their research experience

Pilot Funding Outside of UC San Diego

Your own Institutions

- Explore potential grant opportunities at your home institution

Profession Organizations

- Explore potential grant opportunities at your member professional organizations

Private Foundations

- Explore potential grant opportunities through Private Foundations with an interest in the health and wellbeing of your patient population

Good luck!

Research
Grants
